Rescheduled works Bungower Road, Moorooduc Temporary road closure – Wednesday, 16 February 2011

The temporary closure of Bungower Road between Stumpy Gully Road and Derril Road (Melway Ref: 147 D3) for Peninsula Link originally planned for this weekend, has been rescheduled to overnight Wednesday, 16 February 2011. This change is required due to prevailing ground conditions brought about by recent rain events.

During these works traffic will be diverted onto the constructed side track at Bungower Road. This diversion will remain in place for approximately 12 months while we build the ultimate bridge and interchanges for Peninsula Link.

The works scheduled for Mornington-Tyabb Road, Moorooduc will go ahead as planned.

Details of closure

Bungower Road, Moorooduc: 7pm Wednesday, 16 February 2011 to 6am Thursday, 17 February 2011. Road signs and variable message boards will mark the detour route. From the west: Vehicles can detour via Moorooduc Hwy to Mornington-Tyabb Road or Eramosa Road. From the east: Vehicles can detour via Coolart Road to Mornington-Tyabb Road or Eramosa Road. See map below.

These works may impact nearby residents. An action plan has been implemented to minimise construction impacts such as machinery noise and vibration. These impacts will be closely monitored in accordance with Environmental Protection Authority guidelines.

If you any issues or have further questions regarding these works, we encourage you to contact our 24-hour community line on 1300 453 035 or contact@peninsulalink.com.au.

While every effort is made to ensure accuracy of information presented in this notice, timing of activities are subject to change.
